Invitation to Hunter's Feast

Fine and fair the foodstuffs brought forth by our land – grains from the farmer, grown by hoe and hand, wild fruits found and gathered, or herdsman's slaughtered beast –
but none can compare with our noble Hunter's Feast.

Oats and wheat are splendid for making bonny bread;
cabbages and turnips both help to keep us fed;
carrots, kale and onions of foods are not the least,
but only serve to garnish our noble Hunter's Feast.

Apples crisp and ruddy make pies and cider fine;
berries red and purple and grapes make splendid wine;
beer and mead make merry soldier, prince and priest –
but these but serve to sweeten our noble Hunter's Feast.

Eggs and milk and cheeses, creamy, salt and sweet,
are excellent as staples and pleasant oft to eat;
chickens, ducks and peacocks are loved in west and east,
but still cannot compare with our noble Hunter's Feast.

Cow's meat for the Saxons, pig's meat for the Celts, mutton for the Normans, and goat's meat for all else –
every clan and nation has each their favorite beast, but higher still they value our noble Hunter's Feast.

Salmon full of wisdom, antelope and hare, wildfowl from the marshes, deer and boar and bear –
these make up our menu, so when my words have ceased come and join our company at our noble Hunter's Feast.

Mistress Guennen Cimarguid

Unto the good people of the Outlands do We, Bela and Anna, King and Queen, send greetings!

Though still early in Our Reign, fortune has deemed Us worthy of traveling a great deal of Our Lands. The joy and hospitality with which We were met in Our Southernmost Barony exemplifies that unique spirit which sets us Outlanders apart from the rest of the Knowne World. We are honored by the generous tribute paid by the fine artisans of Argonia. May the skill of these artists and the delightful members of the Citadel of the Southern Pass be celebrated across Our Kingdom.

Attention must also be brought to those generous Baronies of Caerthe, Caer Galen, Dragonsspine, and Unser Hafen who hosted the Northern Regional Toys for Tots Challenge. Not only did this event evoke a child-like glimmer of joy in the day's participants, both young and old, but we may all rejoice in knowing that our works have brightened the holidays for many children.

Heavy on the heels of the holiday season do Our War Drums remind Us of the battles that lay ahead. As their song grows, so does the Army of the Stag. May Our Fighting Force yet again stand as a sea of green - unyielding, united, and proud - for We are the Outlands!

Until then, know that Our love is with you, Our People. We wish you the happiest of holidays. May your hearth be warm, your journies safe, and may you always be with those you love.

Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings,
I am truely humbled to have been witness to the generosity of this Kingdom in its collection of toys last month. Thank you to all that donated toys, money, time, and effort to this worthy cause. Many children will have a brighter holiday season because of the Mighty Outlands!!!

As the end of the year approaches I wish to remind all local group officers about the upcoming Domesday reports. The deadline for these will be your normal January reporting date, so please get them together as soon as possible. Your Kingdom counterpart must also do one of these and send it to Society, so the sooner we get this information the easier our job is to complete our report.

In conclusion, I want to remind everyone attending that you should be prepping for War. February will be here before you know it, so plan accordingly. I will be in attendance at al-Barran Midwinter this month, and weather permitting Caerthen 12th Night on January 2nd. If you wish to discuss any issues face to face with me, please find me at one of these events.

YIS,
Master James David

White Stag

Just a couple quick notes this month. My thanks to THL Natal'ia Mechislava for her work at the tourneys at Coronation (along with my apologies for giving her the wrong title last month) and to THL Llywus ap Alan for the new handbooks. I am currently seeking a successor for Castle. Also, the time for applications for White Stag is NOW, please see the Outlands email list for the deadline; applications should be sent to both the Crown and to White Stag.

Also, I would like to invite one and all to come to the Heralds and Scribes Symposium, to be held in Caerthe, February 27th, 2010. If you are interested in teaching in either track, please contact myself or Mistress Ymanya.
Cady Marie de Blois

Earl Marshal

Greetings!

The current list of active marshals for the Outlands will be included in next month's newletter. Please review the list and let me know if there are corrections. We will start again next year with 3 All Marshal's Meetings and I look forward to seeing all marshals.

I wish to announce that we have a new Combat Archery Deputy. Lingorm gympe eykr (loki@fisi.net) has agreed to step up and drive the combat archery efforts for the Outlands. He is looking forward to working with the combat archers throughout the kingdom and he plans on traveling to meet you. Please welcome him.

Estrella war is coming upon us quickly. Take the time to plan, coordinate, and budget your travel and camping. Getting the the site frustrated is a good way to go upon the fighting field with the wrong attitude. Take the time and enjoy the war.

Sir Dennis the Wright

Archer General

The summer shooting season is over. Now is the time to check your equipment and make any repairs. Repair any arrows that have missing tips or loose feathers. Check your bow string for any fraying. Check your serving and see if you need to put on a new one. Keeping your equipment in good shape ensures that you will have fun at the range instead of frustration when something breaks.

Estrella War is just around the corner and the AG needs your help. If you are a marshal and are going to War and would like to help by spending time on the range, please let me know. Currently we are very short-handed and need all the help that we can get. If you wish to become a range marshal, contact your closest Authorizing Marshall and talk to them about the requirements needed. I encourage archers to learn all that they can. I feel that it makes the game more fun for all of us.

At Stag's Con, Sir Dennis revised the marshals reporting requirements. All marshals no longer need to report to Sir Dennis every month, but he is asking that any time you assist in marshaling a line where there are issues that you send him a report, with a cc to the AG. Additionally, all DAGs, COAs and Authorizing Marshals should cc earlmarshal@outlands.org when you send your regular reports. This will help Sir Dennis answer questions and direct inquiries to active marshals when events are being planned.

We are still seeking your thoughts on the annual Royal Archer tournament. If you have ideas, thoughts or suggestions, please send them to lord-forrester@comcast.net. We will be presenting your ideas to Their Majesties to assist them in planning.

THC Angus Montgomery the Forrester

Minister of Children

Greetings to the great populace of the Outlands,

In November, a revised copy of the Society and Outlands Policies regarding Minors was sent to both the Seneschals and Ministers of Children Officers via their discussion lists. This revised copy included some new formatting, larger print, additional information and it replaces the first 9 pages of the new Youth Handbook that was given out at Stags Con. If your local group still doesn't have their copy of the Youth Handbook, please contact me at krege@aps.edu.

Our appreciation to Violetta Villoni (aka Veela), who has been working hard as our new Web Minister for the Youth, Page Academy and Minister of Children web pages. The Youth web page can now be accessed at http://www.youth.outlands.org and other youth web pages are accessible from the youth webpage. The Academy of Pages two page handout for the youth, the Page Academy Handbook for parents and MOC Officers, and the enrollment, transcript and other forms are now available on the Page Academy website.

We have a lot of plans for the youth at our first inter-kingdom war, Battlemoor, July 1-4, south of Colorado Springs. There will be four full days of activities for our youth in three separate age groups (5-7, 8-11, 12-17) from 10:00 a.m. to noon and 1:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m., including arts, service, marshal arts, youth foam sword melees and tournaments, a children's crusade, period board games, period outdoor games, middle eastern dancing, Page Academy classes and much more. We also want to have a carpeted and "fenced" area for babies and children age 4 and under to play together, while supervised by their parents or designated adults. We need to borrow two baronial or college pavilions for these activities from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., each of these four days, and we will need lots of volunteers. If you have questions regarding youth activities or programs or wish to be involved in supporting our youth in any way, please contact me at krege@aps.edu.
In service to the Outlands,

THCady Jayne Barber

Outlands Academy of Pages

With winter comes planning for spring and summer events. Please consider holding an Outlands Academy of Pages class at your upcoming events. Academy classes need to be approved through the Academy, but this process is simple. All that needs to happen is have the prospective teacher contact me at outlandspageacademy@yahoo.com or by phone 720-981-0278 and let me know the basic content of the class. Please keep in mind all Academy classes should have some historical information or relate to how we do things in the SCA. Once the Academy approves a class, that teacher is accredited to teach that class for life. Once a class is approved all current Pages will be informed of the class and the event at which it will be held. So this could help draw people to your event!

VIS. Cady Morwyn.
Dean of the Outlands Page Academy

Kingdom Scribe

Unto all sons and daughters of the Stag, Greetings!

As the reign of Maelgwn III and Sabine has drawn to a close in glorious fashion, I would thank all of the amazing scribes who created the many beautiful scrolls over the last reign. There were 98 scrolls completed with 32 scribes contributing in a great effort. I would like to give special thanks to Countess Sabine who created 9 scrolls and designed a half dozen more, to Lady Geua who has supplied the Kingdom with dozens of scrolls, eight of which were used this reign, and to Mistress Bennet who created 7 scrolls. Minister of the Lists Hail Unto the Authorizing Marshalls!

Unto all authorizing marshalls of the Outlands do I, Sáerlaith inghean Robeaird, send greetings! I come to you this day with a request.

When sending Sir Dennis the information of what fighters you have authorized (along with all other accompanying information he has asked you to send), please copy me on that information. You can either copy me on e-mail if that is your mode of transmission or send it to my home address found earlier in this publication or on the Outlands website.

The reason for this duplication is so that I can fulfill my duties as Kingdom MOL as Sir Dennis and myself get the information ironed out and current.

Cady Searlaith inghean Roibeard

Estrella Land Coordinator

Unto the people of the Outlands, we greet you well~

As autumn progresses inevitably towards winter, thoughts turn to Estrella War. Now is the time to start working on the details. The Land Coordinator for the Outlands is Countess Slaine and her Deputy is Countess Matilda. All inquiries can be sent to either one of us. Our contact information is at the bottom.

Request for land from households will only be accepted from groups of 15 or more persons. There is no minimum number for SCA groups. Cantons and Colleges that are within Baronies will be rolled into their Barony's space.

The following are some rules and guidelines:

- Each group must designate a contact person. We do enjoy talking to everyone, but if it is regarding land we would like to only deal with one person per group.
- With a few exceptions, groups will rotate their position one spot off from where they were last year. That way, eventually everyone will have the shorter walk to the showers, merchants and the battlefield. Location of your group does NOT depend upon the number of campers.
- Pre-registration on the Estrella website does not get land allocated for you. If you are not included with a group you will be in the overflow camping area.
- A map with locations will be available on site at the land coordinators' camps.
- Land allocation will close January 22, 2010.
- If nobody from your group shows up by Thursday at 6:00 p.m., your group loses its allocation unless prior arrangements have been made with one of us.
- Please be friendly. Share with your neighbor. Don't let land disputes ruin our fun.
- Please build your encampment from one edge over to allow for unexpected changes in your camp numbers. Please don't have a courtyard or other large un-camped area if others are cramped.
- RV spaces are reserved separately. Please go to the Estrella War website www.estrellawar.org for information.

Please don't hesitate to contact us with ANY questions you may have! We want this to run smoothly. You can email Slaine at sarnold8@msn.com or call 505-836-0350. You can email Matilda at dwso21@aol.com.

Yours Assured,
Slaine and Matilda

First Annual Outlands Fighter Centerfold Calendar!

All proceeds for this calendar will go to the Outlandish Herald. The reason is printing costs are going up, and I am adding more things to the OH to make it better for our populace. If this takes off, it will allow me to have more fun issues, maybe some issues in full color :).

Yes, that's right, I like the idea so much, I am doing a calendar. This will be the first annual (hopefully) should be out in time for Xmas. What I need from you are Pictures of your favorite fighters!

Yes, if you send me a picture of your favorite fighter, it may be picked to be in the calendar. The rules for the pictures are:

1. FULL COLOR HIGH RESOLUTION. Yes, this is going to look pretty, and I would like at least 300 DPI. So send me the biggest picture you can find and if it is the right resolution I will possibly use it.

2. This calendar is VERY tongue in cheek. Humor is important. NO NUDITY! Suggestion of such is fine, but I will not print anything I wouldn't want my 3 year old niece to see.

3. No Minors. It is too sticky a prospect, even though I personally know of some great things that can be done.

4. Try to Be FUNNY. These will be people you will know in your area- the more notorious they are, the more they may be known throughout the Outlands. Stage the shots, have some fun :)

5. The photos do not have to be shot at events, they can be staged (in fact I was planning most be staged). This doesn't mean that a really good shot from an event cannot be used, and THIS IS NOT LIMITED TO HEAVY FIGHTING. I am sure that most of my submissions will be heavy fighters, as that is the core of the fighting group, but ANY SCA authorized fighting style can be used- Archery, Thrown Weapons, Rapier, even Equestrian. Just make sure you follow the above rules.

If you would like a calendar please let me know, and I will add you to our pre-order list. They are tentatively priced at $25. This may change depending on costs to print, as this is a fundraiser, I would like to be able to raise some funds :). These calendars will also have all the major events (currently listed on the official calendar) for the year. Perfect for planning as well as for your regular calendar :)

Lastly, any photo you take will need to have a Model Release Form signed by the individual of the shot taken, and a copyright form signed by the photographer. Again- email me, and I will send you an electronic version of the release form. I need these photos ASAP. Deadline for them will be December 31st. Please Please PLEASE ask your barony what would be a good thing to submit. I would like to have at least one photo from EACH Barony, and maybe even from each canton. Obviously only 12 can be picked, but this does not mean you shouldn't try. Each photo that is chosen will receive a Free Calendar.

Please email me directly kaitlin@infinitycg.com if you have any questions.

FROM THE SABLE CHAMBER

Polyalphabetic Ciphers Expanded

by Suleiman ibn Da'ud ibn Sahl al-Qalqashandi

In an earlier column, polyalphabetic ciphers were introduced with particular emphasis on the great cipher of Leon Battista Alberti. One of the major advancements of this cipher was the ability for an encrypted letter to represent many different plain text letters. Yet there was also another major advancement from Alberti's disc!

As you may recall from the previous Outlandish Herald article, Alberti created a disc that had the plain text letters on the outer ring and a cipher alphabet on the inner ring. The correspondents would decide upon a certain letter to act as the key letter and shift the inner ring to a new letter whenever a capital letter appeared in the message.

In Alberti's original disc, however, he also removed letters from the outer ring (the plaintext alphabet) and added the numbers 1,2,3, and 4. These would be put together in 2-4 number groups thereby resulting in 336 code groups. Each code group could then be set to any word, phrase, or sentence desired. For example, the number 224 might represent the phrase "attack the enemies". The brilliance in this is that in one case the number 224 might be represented by "eef" but in another case it could be represented by "ssv" - all depending upon what plaintext letter the key letter was set.

This concept will be made more clear through this month's puzzle. Like the last time, the cipher alphabet will be given. To solve the puzzle take this alphabet and form it into a wheel. Then take take a plaintext alphabet (a standard ordered alphabet) and use it as the outer ring. If you omit the letters 'v', 'c', q', and 'y' from the outer ring and add the numbers 1-4 to the end of the alphabet you will be able to easily solve the puzzle though it may take a few guesses to find the correct key letter.

While Alberti's disc does represent one of the most complex ciphers from period, there still remain enciphered texts from period that have yet to be decrypted even to this day! Ah but that fellow Outlanders, is encryption for another day.

LAST COLUMN'S ANSWER: Dio ci salvi dal povero arricchito e dal ricco impoverito. (God save us from the enriched poor and the impoverished rich - an old Italian proverb)

THIS MONTH'S HINTS: The inner disc's alphabet is:
O U T L A N D S W Y J K E R Q B M H Z F C X V I P G
The number 324 shall represent "The Crown"
